

THEOLOGICAL SYMPOSIUM

The Trinity and the images of God perceived from the perspective of various theological disciplines

The meeting of teachers from Jesuit faculties of theology in Europe

Warsaw, Poland, 5th-8th of July 2020

The Vision

If the theology shaped by the Ignatian tradition is to make its mark in Europe, the institutions that practice theology in this way must at least be aware of each other and their faculty members should be in touch. With this in mind, we invite you to this third meeting. Similarly to the Paris meeting in 2015 and the Frankfurt meeting in 2018, the 2020 conference in Falenica has the same two main objectives:

- to enable faculty members to get to know each other, both personally and professionally
- to foster and promote theological awareness marked by the Ignatian tradition.

In a Nutshell

The third Theological Symposium aims to bring together all theologians of our Jesuit Faculties of Theology in Europe, who would be ready to share their reflections and research related to the concept of the Trinity and the images of God with others. Everyone can find their place: biblical scholars, dogmatic theologians, specialists in spirituality or moral theology, as well as those whose reflection is carried out from a pastoral point of view. The symposium offers also an opportunity to get to know each other and spend time not only on working together, but also on having a good time as friends in the Lord.

Methodology

In addition to the keynote speeches, we will operate in groups using two languages (English/French or English/Spanish). Each participant is asked to contribute a 5 to 7 minutes reflection.

Place: European Centre of Culture and Communication (ECCC) Warszawa-Falenica: eccc.pl

Languages: At least passive knowledge of English is expected. French and Spanish can be used in discussions and in small language groups.

Number of Participants: between 20 and 25 people (2-4 per centre).

Organizers: Zbigniew Kubacki, S.J., Dariusz Gardocki, S.J. (Collegium Bobolanum, Warsaw) bobolanum.edu.pl

Total Costs: 250 €
